As a platform of dialogue between Christians and Marxists/Socialists, DIALOP wants to offer with this multiple event a space to reach into the deepest roots of our respective traditions and to share reasons for our struggle and renewed commitment to democracy and peace.

Ernst Bloch with the Principle of hope, Pope Francis with his call for a holy year of hope, and many others can convey the spirit that enlightened their ways to us.

Yet, urgent questions need real answers. We want to commit ourselves in the academic field, in politics, and in activism, according to our experiences as well as to the requests of our different cultures and countries.
